

SHOPPING

Lebanon today has shopping centers where one can find local & international brands, as well as artisanat shops, cosmetics, jewelry, etc.

Lebanon has traditional souks found in old cities like Tyre, Sidon, Byblos & Tripoli.

The handicrafts still do the traditional pottery & glassware, cutlery made of tempered steel or copper with ram or buffalo bone handles shaped in the form of beautiful & colorful bird's heads. Brass & copper goods include braziers, bowls, fluted jugs, ashtrays, swords & doorstops all attractively designed & hand engraved.

Cloth, silk & wool kaftans, abayas (embroidered nightwear) & table linen are popular as they are hand worked in gold & silver. Don't forget to make your last minute shopping at Beirut Airport duty free shop.
